Contents

List of figures x
List of contributors xi

Foreword xiii
WILLIAM F. SHIJA

1 Introduction 1
RICK STAPENHURST AND RASHEED DRAMAN

2 Engaging civil society: Ghana’s first public PAC hearing 5
SAMUEL SALLAS-MENSAH

3 Parliamentary research and information – the Ugandan Parliament’s Budget Office and Parliamentary Budget Committee 15
BEATRICE KIRASO BIRUNGI WITH WANYAKA SAMUEL HUXLEY

4 Promoting gender equality in the Tanzanian Parliament 28
ANNE MAKINDA

5 Peace-building and national reconciliation: the role of the Rwandan Parliament 38
JOSEPH KAREMERA

6 Reaching out to citizens: enhancing the opportunity for private members bills and creating constituency offices in Zambia 50
GIVEN LUBINDA
Contents

7 Promoting parliamentary reforms in the Kenyan Parliament: we have come a long way 56
PETER OLOO ARINGO

8 Benin: citizen participation in the national budget debate via the Budget Committee (a note) 64
SOULE ADAM

9 Strengthening financial accountability and parliamentary oversight in the Federal Republic of Ethiopia 70
MESFIN MENGISTU

10 Rebuilding parliament in a conflict-affected country 81
FRANKLIN SIAKOR

11 Changing the standing orders of parliament in Tanzania 83
WILLIBROD SLAA

12 The parliamentary public accounts committees in Nigerian states – structure, working practices and networking 94
BEN EKEYI

13 Role model for the world: the formation of the African Parliamentarians Network Against Corruption (APNAC) and its regional and global impact 105
GIVEN LUBINDA

14 The growth of constituency development funds in Africa and beyond: institutionalized rent-extraction or constituency-specific development assistance? 113
MARK BASKIN AND RASHEED DRAMAN

15 Climate change: establishing a continental parliamentary task force 128
DAVID EBONG

16 Strengthening public accounts committees through regional networks across Africa 140
JOHN M. CHEYO
17 The role of parliamentarians in the governance of petroleum resources
ABDULKARIM MOHAMMED
148

18 Conclusions
ANDREW IMLACH
155

Afterword: parliamentary reform in Africa?
What are the lessons learnt? What are the next steps?
SHANTAYANAN DEVARAJAN AND TIJAN SALLAH
162

Index
166